

THE DOROTHY L. SAYERS SOCIETY COPY POLICY

Registered Charity No 272120

The Dorothy L. Sayers Society reserves the right to withhold permission for the reproduction of any material in its possession. The Society will allow its materials to be reproduced under certain conditions:

1 Reproductions must not be duplicated or made available to any person or institution or deposited in another archive or library without written permission from the Society.

2 The Society reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgement, fulfilment of the order would violate the copyright law.

3 Reproductions are to be used solely for reasons of private study, scholarship or research by the applicant only.

4 Reproduction or quotation in any publication may not be made without written permission from the copyright holder. In the case of any essay, article, review or other material written by Dorothy L. Sayers such permission should be sought from David Higham Associates, 5-8 Lower John Street, Golden Square, London W1R 4HA

5 Payment is to cover cost of duplication and postage only.

The above conditions are understood and accepted. By this signature I assume full responsibility for any infringement of these conditions.
